

Gault Millau 2010 awards two toques to Unkai

“The service-team, especially the team leader, scores with friendliness [...] the kitchen with an incredible fish-competence. [...]”© Gault Millau 2010

Unkai, under Chef Hiroshi Sakai maintains its position as the best and most authentic Japanese restaurant in Austria with the award of two toques by the gourmet guide Gault Millau. Head chef Hiroshi Sakai offers Japanese dishes in their highest perfection and has turned the restaurant into a hotspot for friends of Asian cuisine.